

Weekend Workshops 2016

Please sign up for your selected Workshops on the attached Workshop Entry Form below. This will help us estimate materials needed. However, you may change workshops during the weekend if you change your mind about which ones you would like to attend.

Showmanship Class Workshop: “What Makes That Special Showman”

4:00 – 5:00 Friday afternoon. Showmanship skills with the Judge! Now get the hints, tips, and finishing touches of what makes a showman and his animal really stand out in the class. Benefits not only pertain to the Youth Showmanship classes, but help you show and place your favorite animal in Halter classes. And, of course, there will be time for group discussion and questions.

Youth Judging Workshop: “You Be The Judge”

4:00 – 5:00 Friday afternoon. Learn how to select the best animal in a halter class, how to place a showmanship class, and how to score performance classes. Be prepared for the Youth Judging Classes on Saturday.

Performance Class Workshop:

5:00 - 6:00 Friday afternoon. Only one session this year. Brush up on the rules, and handler errors of all Performance Classes. What does it take to negotiate the obstacles in a smooth partnership with your animal? Obstacle courses must be done as a team – you and your animal smoothly taking all the obstacles. Discover hints that will result in you and your animal becoming that winning team! Questions and problems will be addressed.

Animal Health Seminars: “All About Your Llama”

4:00 – 5:00 Saturday afternoon. A healthy animal is one who is able to stand out in show classes and is happy to perform his duties. You are the caregiver for your animal – he depends on you to know his basic needs. These workshops will cover various forms of animal care and knowledge.

Vet Seminar A – Incisions & Suturing in the OR! This seminar (A) is for Seniors only.
